

What Does CANEFOR Do?

Our events emphasize intellectual rigor, interdisciplinary dialogue, and inclusive scholarly engagement. Key activities include:

- ✓ Organize annual multidisciplinary conferences
- ✓ Manage thematic webinars on global issues
- ✓ Publish selected conference papers in scholarly journals
- ✓ Arrange keynote addresses by distinguished scholars
- ✓ Create networking and collaboration opportunities
- ✓ Connect student researchers to professionals

Why Attend Conference?

-  Research Collaboration: Identify opportunities for joint research, grant applications, and publications.
-  Scholarly Exchange: Engage with leading scholars across disciplines and regions.
-  Academic Visibility: Present research international and interdisciplinary.
-  Publishing Opportunity: Selected research will be published in International Journal, CANEFOR Special Edition.

CANEFOR's Mission

- ✓ Promote interdisciplinary and scientific research addressing socio-economic, technological, environmental, and cultural issues in Canada, Nepal, and beyond.
- ✓ Facilitate sustained scholarly collaboration among emerging and established researchers through conferences, workshops, and webinars.
- ✓ Advance evidence-based academic and policy-relevant dialogue on contemporary global challenges.

Membership

All registered conference participants become general members of CANEFOR for the year. The organization is guided by an elected Executive Board that oversees planning, governance, and strategic direction in alignment with CANEFOR's mission.

Canada-Nepal Forum for Research (CANEFOR)

Initiated in 2019, CANEFOR is a not-for-profit scholarly organization officially registered in 2024, dedicated to advancing interdisciplinary research collaboration and knowledge exchange among Canadian scholars, the Nepali diaspora, and international researchers. CANEFOR serves as an academic platform for dialogue, collaboration, and critical inquiry on issues of shared national and global significance.

Future Plan

Introduce poster sessions for high school and undergraduate students

Establish awards recognizing outstanding research presentations by emerging scholars

Expand quarterly webinar series on emerging global issues

Develop funding to reduce participation costs and provide student travel support.

Implement any worthwhile research initiative as suggested by our members
